

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

12 January 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable Robert McFarlane
Assistant to the President for
National Security Affairs

This is the paper about which I spoke to you yesterday. I gave it to the President. He told me this morning he had read it. It brings together so much activity that the copies are numbered and this version has not been distributed except to the four Deputy Directors here and the President. You and he can determine whether to keep your copies. All other copies are being held here and I would prefer that you not have anybody else read it unless you find it desirable and let us keep a record of it here.

William J. Casey
